

I would like to continue with the current rule of broadcast ownership. I am completely against the new proposal for media consolidation. I believe it is against the public interest and democracy. Diversity of ownership ensures that different opinions are heard.